Blizzard In Midwest Beginning To Abate

(By International News Service)
Digging out operations were under way today from the eastern slope of the Rockies through the Great Plains states in the wake of one of the most bitter early season blizzards in years.
At least nine persons perished as a result of the wind-whipped snowstorm, which abated to light flurries and rain over Iowa, Wisconsin, northern Illinois and Minnesota.
Still reeling under the storm's impact were communities in Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, and sections of Oklahoma and Texas.

Israel's Claims Given Qualified Support By U. S.

New State's Admission To United Nations Is Also Urged By U. S.
U. S. DELEGATE OUTLINES STAND
By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, Nov. 20.—The U. S. gave qualified support to Israel's claims in the Negev desert today and urged the new state's admission to the United Nations.
U. S. Delegate Dr. Philip C. Jessup told the Political Committee of the U. N. that America supports the "basic principles" of the Bernadotte plan for recognition of Israel and partition of Palestine.
But he said the U. S. government opposes detachment of the Negev without Israeli consent, backed the internationalization of Jerusalem and called for mutual exchanges of territory between Jews and Arabs to settle boundary disputes.
Israel Opposes Separation
Israel violently opposes separation of the conquered Negev.
Jessup said the U. S. does not accept all particulars of a British resolution calling for swift action to bring about partition under the Bernadotte plan and will introduce major amendments.
He said:
"The U. S. has approved the 'Joint Plan' of Israel to boundaries set forth in the November 29, 1947 partition plan and considers that modifications thereof should be made only if fully acceptable."
In urging territorial exchanges to satisfy Jewish demands for a larger share of the Holy Land, Jessup was believed referring to a transfer of Galilee to the Arabs in return for Israeli possession of the Negev.
Follows Truman's Statement
The program as laid down by Jessup followed word for word the statement by President Truman on October 24.
At this time Mr. Truman said: "The Democratic platform states that we approve the claims of Israel to the boundaries set forth (Continued on Page Two)

North Atlantic Pact Agreement Draft Reported

By THOMAS C. WATSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, Nov. 20.—The five Western European Union nations were reported today to have reached agreement on a draft "North Atlantic pact" for submission to the United States Government.
Authoritative sources said, however, that Washington conversations on the proposed alliance probably will not begin for at least two weeks.
The draft treaty is said to have been drawn up by the representatives of the five nations, Great Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg, during a secret London meeting.
It is expected it will be submitted for formal approval over the weekend to the respective governments which already are united in the "Brussels pact" for mutual defense.

Princess And Duke Are Observing First Wedding Anniversary

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, glowing in the pride of parenthood, celebrate their first wedding anniversary today.
Elizabeth, still confined to bed, will be joined in her chamber for a bedside dinner with Prince Philip this evening. Philip is expected to surprise her with the gift of an exquisite piece of jewelry which he secretly bought for the occasion some months ago.
There will certainly be a gift for the still-unborn Prince of Edinburgh also.
The occasion will be a memorable one for the young couple. When they were married a year ago in the traditional pomp and splendor of a great ruling house, they could have had no greater hope than the one fulfilled by the birth of their son.
Like so many newlyweds, Elizabeth and Philip are still without a home of their own. But, across from St. James palace, carpenters, plumbers and painters are working to refurbish Clarence House as their London residence.

Great Lakes Storm Beaches Freighter

SUPERIOR, Wis., Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Great Lakes freighter Robert Hobson, with 33 men aboard, was beached by high winds and pounding waves during a blinding snowstorm today at the Superior entrance to the Head-of-the-Lakes Harbor.
The ship was carefully watched by Coast Guard crews, standing by to take off the crew members if the vessel should appear to be breaking up.
Coast Guard spokesmen said winds were definitely diminishing, however, and added that it appeared likely that storm would soon subside enough to allow them to remove the ship from the sandbar.

French Troops Take Over Docks In Strike Area

Barricades At Dunkerque Are Demolished As Troops Move In
By JOHN E. LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, Nov. 20.—French troops demolished barricades and took over the strike-bound docks of the Port of Dunkerque today without opposition.
Picketing longshoremen, who quit work Tuesday, six days before the time set for a general dock strike called by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (CGT), were found to have left the barricades during the night.
The pickets apparently fled after watching some 4,000 North African troops, equipped with half-tracks, maneuver into position to seize the docks.

China Airmen Attack Fleeing Reds At Suchow

China's Nationalist Capital Relaxes In Wake Of Claimed Victories
BULLETIN
NANKING, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A government military source in Nanking reported tonight that Communist forces have renewed their offensive on the Suchow front.
The Nationalist spokesman said five Red columns transferred from southern Shantung province are attacking on the east flank of the Suchow line, which defends Nanking, Shanghai and the rich Yangtze valley.
By SEYMOUR TOPPING
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
NANKING, Nov. 20.—China's Nationalist capital relaxed today in the wake of smashing government victories in the battle for Suchow.
An official government communique said more than 2,000 Communists had been killed while trying to escape government forces near the Grand Canal east and north of Suchow.
It was in this area, bounded by the canal and the Lunghai and Tientsin-Pukow railroads, that the Reds had concentrated their greatest forces for the attack that might have opened up all of Central China to them.
Planes Inflict Casualties
The government said these latest casualties were inflicted by Nationalist airforce planes which bombed and strafed the shattered (Continued on Page Two)

Gas Line Blasts Cause Damage At Seymour, Ind.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Flames from two blasts which split the "big inch" and "little inch" natural gas pipelines at the nearby Redington pumping station and injured 12 persons still blazed early today.
Officials shut off the lines at stations at Medora and Batesville, Ind. and at Somerset, O., after the explosions.
Technicians were scheduled to arrive at Redington today to re-route the line.
No estimate was immediately available on the length of time supplies would be cut off.
Three Hospitalized
Three of those hurt—none seriously—were hospitalized at Schneck Memorial Hospital in Seymour. They were Jack B. Walters, 30, Middletown, O.; Charles Melnick, 39, Seymour; and Marvin Dixon, 43, West Baden, Ind.
The other nine were released after treatment.

Large Supply Of Narcotics Stolen From Hospital

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Detroit police reported today that an estimated $10,000 worth of narcotics were stolen from Redford receiving hospital during the night.
The value set by police is that which the drugs would bring in the underworld market.
Hospital officials said the narcotics were taken from a safe in the basement pharmacy between 5 p. m. yesterday and 2:15 a. m. today.
Police said the thief apparently knew the combination to the safe. The door into the pharmacy room had been forced open.
The theft was discovered when Dr. George Scholnick, staff physician, noticed the pharmacy room door ajar.

Russian Propaganda Attack Is Now Shifted To Atlantic Alliance

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Russia's heavy propaganda artillery today, apparently was shifting its aim from the Marshall plan to the North Atlantic Alliance.
Soviet attacks on the United States were revealed to be aimed at discouraging Western European participation in the anti-Communist alliance. The propaganda efforts are particularly directed at the Scandinavian countries, apparently most important to Russian foreign policy.
At present the only countries involved in the North Atlantic Alliance plans are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.
Raise Greenland Question
In Denmark the Communist party has been most active in raising the question of Greenland. The United States contends that it merely holds weather stations there and that no real military force is on the Danish island. However, the United States has already declared that it regards Greenland as essential to the defense of the Western Hemisphere. Moreover, the American states indicated at Rio de Janeiro that they regard the great ice-capped island as a part of the Western Hemisphere.
The Danish Communists have asked their government when the United States agreement whereby it maintains bases in Greenland will be abrogated.
Danish Communists insist that failure to negotiate an agreement on Greenland, whereby the United States will get out, comes within America's "militaristic" plans of which the North Atlantic Alliance is a part.
In Sweden, Moscow is carrying on an equally active campaign. The Soviet radio charges that the visit of John Foster Dulles to Nordic countries was for the development of their participation in the pact.
Other countries similarly under United States pressure, the Moscow radio contends, are Norway, Iceland, Ireland and Portugal.

Big Three Draft Another Reply On Berlin Crisis

Note In Response To Pleas For Berlin Conciliation Ready Monday
BRAMUGLIA URGES NEW COMPROMISE (BULLETIN)
PARIS, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The western Big Three were said today to be drafting a new note on the Berlin crisis in response to pleas for a new attempt at conciliation.
The note, a reply to a proposal by Security Council President Juan A. Bramuglia of Argentina, will be delivered Monday. Britain, France and the U. S. are said to have agreed to draft identical replies.
New Formula Given
Bramuglia, who has been spearheading United Nations attempts to solve the crisis, was said to have submitted a new formula for solving the currency problem.
Russia has insisted that until the west agrees to make the Soviet mark the sole currency of Berlin, the blockade will not be lifted. The west has insisted that the blockade be lifted first.
Bramuglia's new proposal is thought to center about an arrangement whereby both conditions can be fulfilled almost simultaneously.
Study Currency Question
U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie has a staff of experts studying the currency question. U. S. financial experts from Washington and the American occupation zone of Germany have also been working over the problem.
A cautious attitude was being maintained with regard to the new compromise suggestion. Bramuglia's last proposal to solve the deadlock was vetoed by the Soviets Oct. 25.

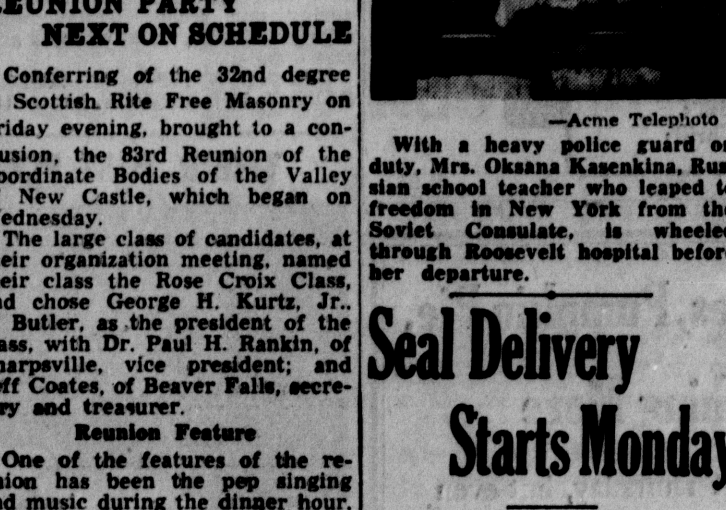

Some Hope For Settlement Of Shipping Strike

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Negotiations to end the paralyzing east coast dock strike resume today with increased prospects for a settlement of the 11-day-old walk-out.
Settlement hopes rose after the strikers, all members of the International Longshoremen's Association, AFL, cut in half their demand for a 50-cents-an-hour wage increase.
Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin said in Philadelphia that he is "optimistic about an early settlement". He indicated that he expects the strike to end within a few days.
The 188 companies of the New York Shipping Association, the largest employer group, have been summoned to meet today at the association's offices to take up the new union proposal.

I know the turkey's listed as the national eating bird, and with this proud distinction I will raise not phrase or word. I only wish to mention that I've eaten it so much, with stuffing and with sauces and with apud and other such, that I would not raise a finger if a law were passed which said, that every living turkey would be legal only dead. Don't tell me of those dinners where the turkey's on display. I'll take some ham or sauerkraut, it's fifty-one today.

Why Hirohito Was Not Tried

TOKYO, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Japan's Emperor Hirohito was not called to answer a war crimes charge because "he might have taken the entire blame for the war."

That was one of the reasons advanced today by the war crimes trials chief prosecutor for Hirohito's exoneration from guilt in waging war against the allies. (Aristocratic circles in Japan have long circulated rumors that Hirohito should abdicate because of the decision not to prosecute him.)

(They say war crimes decisions against 25 defendants including "Pearl Harbor Premier" Hideki Tojo who was sentenced to hang put the emperor in a "difficult position.")

The four allied powers decided in 1945 not to try the emperor. The chief prosecutor, Joseph B. Keenan, said Hirohito might have been tried "as a war criminal on the basis of negligence or weakness but that it would have been a borderline case."

The prosecutor explained that a review of the facts showed Hirohito had had little actual influence over the 14 cabinets in existence during the time reviewed by the court.

E. And A. Division Sponsors Second Safety Meeting

Rev. T. J. Jones Main Speaker At Large Gathering At Wheatland Friday

More than 100 men from the Wheatland point of the Pennsylvania railroad attended the second in a series of safety meetings in the E. & A. division Friday night. W. H. Trimble, division engineer, had charge of the meeting held in the Wheatland American Legion hall. He called on the new general superintendent from Cleveland, E. L. Hoffman, and division superintendent, Marion Street, for a few brief remarks before introducing the main speaker, Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church.

Rev. Jones gave a very interesting talk. He pointed out the similarity of the Ten Commandments and the railroad's safety code. He stated that observing both was essential to healthy, happy living. Two educational and entertaining films, "Eternal Flame" and "Safe Railroadings" were shown for the group. A refreshment period followed the movies.

remnants of once hard-hitting Red forces as they attempted to cross the canal.

The Communist radio—usually boundlessly optimistic—was vague in broadcasts heard in Nanking. Neutral observers in Nanking admitted the government had won one of its greatest victories in China's tragic civil war.

The government has claimed it inflicted 140,000 casualties on the Communists during the ten day battle whose outcome might yet determine the dominating regime in China.

Suffer 40,000 Casualties The Nationalists admitted that their own forces had suffered 40,000 casualties.

(Both Nationalist and Communist casualty claims are often greatly exaggerated.)

But observers were skeptical of government claims as to the extent of the Red defeat. It was believed the Communists were retreating so as to re-organize for new assaults on the Suchow rail center—"key to the defense of the rich Yangtze Valley."

Government forces were using loudspeaker equipment to persuade the beaten and scattered Red units to surrender their arms.

DINNER-MEETING

National Secretaries Association enjoyed their Thursday evening dinner-program in a downtown dining room, after which they heard as guest speaker, Miss Dorothy Parry, interior decorator for the Haney company.

Miss Parry gave an excellent talk, one from which the Association members received many useful hints. She told them of three "must" rules for proper interior decorating. Namely, coordination of style, balance of design, and choice of colors. Miss Parry elaborated these points in her address.

President Miss Florence Davis was in charge during business. The group discussed the regional conference which is to be held in Pittsburgh, December 4-5, with many members of the chapter to attend.

Thursday, December 16, is the next session, the meeting to be a Christmas party, the place to be announced.

Gov. Duff Has The Right Idea, Safety Is A Must In Pennsylvania

Governor James H. Duff has set down a safety program for Pennsylvania which we believe is a fine idea. Safety on the highways is a "MUST" in Pennsylvania and particularly in Lawrence County.

Safety is a cardinal principle of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association. But safety is not confined to a group, an organization or a county. It is a personal thing.

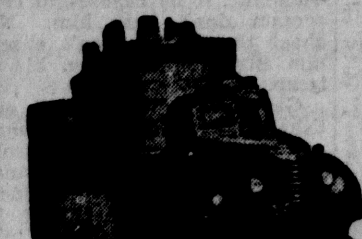

On December 11, there will be a safety rally in the Castleton Hotel, sponsored by the Mayor's Traffic Study Committee. Co-sponsors with this committee are the Greater New Castle Association, the Teamsters' Union, the New Castle Motor Club and ourselves.

Through this meeting we hope to impress upon all citizens the necessity of safer driving upon the streets and highways. We are proud to be able to assist the governor of this Commonwealth in his safety program.

PART FEDERAL PAYROLL PLAYS

President Truman carried the big state of Ohio by just about 6000 votes, according to the official count made public this week.

The tabulation made sharp corrections in the election night returns by recognizing a series of errors in Cleveland and Cuyahoga County.

The corrections failed, however, to change the stand of Ohio for President Truman. Even if they had altered the Ohio outcome, it would have made no difference in the Truman victory.

But the Ohio count brings to attention a fact which has been little noticed by the public in nationwide elections. It is the big part which swollen federal payrolls can play in our national affairs.

A total of 7752 absentee ballots were sent home to Ohio from jobholders in the democratic administration at Washington. Upon the principle of self-preservation of employment, it is safe to wager that more than 6000 of these were votes for Truman.

So the supposition is that the federal payroll carried a vital state for the President. And had the electoral of Ohio been the pivot on which victory swung, as they appeared on election night, we could have had a Presidential race determined by biased partisans in Washington.

NOT FOR THE ARMY

For refusing to permit the shipment of supplies, foodstuffs and mail to armed forces overseas, the striking longshoremen on the East Coast should lose whatever public support they may have had. That the decision to reject the Army's request was made "without dissent" shows how little the strikers care about anybody except themselves.

It may be true, as the union leaders say, that none of the cargo is perishable. But it also is true—and this ought to have made some impression on even the most hard-boiled longshoremen—that the Army abroad needs food to keep alive. Europe is not a land of plenty and any interruption in the flow of supplies to the soldiers is certain to have serious effect.

If the country were in a hot war instead of a cold war the government would have the means to combat this defiant attitude toward its appeal. And it would not be a pleasant business for the strikers. As it is the public can only wonder what kind of American citizens the longshoremen have in their union. Perhaps, like Henry Wallace, they want the United States to take its armed forces out of Germany and leave that nation to the tender mercies of the communists.

There seems to be no other explanation that fits the facts in the case.

The election of President Truman, giving him an administration in his own right, will not change our foreign policy. Had Governor Dewey been elected President there would have been little change in our foreign policy. There would have been a different man for Secretary of State under the latter, but the policy would have been the same.

The reason is that we have embarked on a policy of enforcing peace in Europe and there is nothing we can do about it unless we turn our backs on the entire situation, which is now unthinkable since we have so far engaged ourselves. To back down and appease Russia would not bring peace, but only postpone the evil day when there will be a real showdown between communism and the advocates of individual enterprise. In fact, appeasement now would only postpone the prospective trouble to a time when Stalin will be much better prepared than at present.

The predicament we are in in Europe now is an unpleasant one. Our forces are surrounded in Berlin. The only way our zone of the city can be supplied is through the air, and the winter weather will greatly hinder our airlift. Time, therefore, seems to be on the side of Mr. Stalin. And over in Asia our vacillating policy has practically turned the great Manchurian area over to Russian influence. We fought the Japs to save Manchuria from Tokyo and turn it back to China. The result of our Russian appeasement policy has turned Manchuria over to Moscow.

Nearly everyone now admits that our policy toward Russia has been ill-advised. But there is never any use crying over spilled milk. The question now is, what to do about it.

This question will have to be solved early in the new administration. Any effort to come to a "peaceful" understanding with Stalin will fail unless we realize that Stalin's word isn't worth anything. We cannot permit ourselves to be soothed into a sense of false security by any agreement we make with Russia. Such agreement will be worth only the paper it is written on, plus the military, naval and aerial might we maintain for ourselves.

Truly the picture is not a pretty one, but we asked for it when we agreed to let Stalin have his way in Eastern Europe and in the Orient.

Right after election is when a lot of good intentions are carried out—on stretchers.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTRICHER, INS Foreign Director

A new definition of Western Europe unity as an established concept strong enough politically to stand against oppression and firm enough economically to eliminate the need for outside assistance was set before the world today.

It came from John Foster Dulles in a Paris speech delivered as an offset to repeated Soviet charges that the United States has concerned itself for post-war Western Europe as a means to world domination.

Dulles' challenge to the continental nations that remain in fear of Communist aggression or unquerable infiltration focused attention again upon the constant work of the steadily-expanding group which is working for a United States of Europe.

Efforts are obscured. Far more sensational developments abroad such as the unbroken crisis in Berlin and United Nations moved with regard to Palestine have served to obscure the untiring efforts of the European parliamentarians who believe that a European federation is the only key to peace.

Their proposals as to how such a union is to be brought about remain largely in the field of generalities.

They find it difficult to draft a concerted plan of action over and above a proposed constitution drafted months ago in Switzerland. But unlike numerous other Utopian proposals that presumably would banish the fear of war from the cockpit of all conflicts engaging the major part of the world, this one refuses to be killed off by skepticism and setbacks.

A survey of regional agreements completed among the Western European Nations—all drafted in the definite hope they will not be upset by some violent eruption—does appear to reflect a general public viewpoint in Europe that a fundamental change in Nationalistic trends must be brought about.

Such reflection is seen in continued application for United Nations membership.

It is visible in local trade, currency, border and barter agreements that in the overall picture appear small and inconsequential.

But such successive commitment

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TRAINING NERVOUS CHILDREN

The nervous child needs effective discipline. He may be nervous for want of adequate discipline. Often the physician advises the parents against punishing the nervous child at all. He, of course, has in mind punishments which stir up the child emotionally without attaining the desired ends. But any physician surely knows that the nervous child must be controlled and that if he is not he surely will grow more nervous. His obligation is to show the parents how to get desirable control of the child and how to employ punishments so as to need fewer of them. Certainly anybody knows that the nervous child is more in need of some regimentation and discipline (as a basis of self-control) than other children.

There is no better way for a child to grow more nervous than for him to meet with emotional conflicts; and if he doesn't learn some inhibitions for respecting the rights and possessions of others, these conflicts are sure to mount. Without proper discipline, however, he is going to have more emotional conflicts with his parents. As he and his parents get on each other's nerves he and they will annoy each other more and, correspondingly, enjoy each other less.

Strong Argument
 All this is a strong argument for parents to establish some desirable basic restraints early. I show how in my bulletin, "How Teach Tot Meaning of No," to be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

It's a powerful argument for putting into effect early the chair-sitting punishment, about which so many parents are writing me to tell of its effectiveness. On this matter I have written times more than anybody else. I'm glad to be known as its constant advocate. As soon as you have trained your tot to respect the meaning of "No" (which he rarely hears), you can abandon spanking. Some mothers achieve this before the child is four or five, even earlier. For this punishment to be effective the child must have such great regard for your word that it will not venture to leave the chair before the time (announced when he is assigned the punishment) is up.

May Be a Bench
 Instead of a chair it may be a bench, box or just the floor. Always make the time definite (15 minutes at two, 20 at three or four, 30 at five or six, 50 at eight or ten). Let him have no toys, books, radio for amusement during the sitting. Have him sit where you can easily see him so he can't get into mischief. Don't stand over him. Merely check so he can't leave the chair with instant pain. If he wishes to carry on a conversation with the chair talk to him as if nothing irregular had happened—but not about his offense or the punishment. If he chooses to cry or scream don't hear him. Never cheat the clock. Don't exact of him any promises when his time is up.

Get this technique well established and you have a safe, humane and powerful means of controlling your child sick or well, nervous or not nervous. As he grows older he will be prepared to profit from punishments by isolation in his own room or denial of a cherished privilege. This child also will be prepared to profit from like measure of control by the "baby sitter" or teacher.

of this sort entered into between countries that have been torn apart by strife in the past or welded together in the heat of emergency may some day prove to be of utmost importance.

Recent dispatches from Stockholm have indicated strongly, for example, that Sweden before many months have passed will renounce her traditional neutrality and join with Denmark and Norway in a mutual defense pact.

This would be followed logically by Scandinavian participation in the Western European Union—an enormous lift to Finland in her adherence to Democratic principles against every conceivable measure of pressure from Soviet Russia.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

From a lot of my mail and from many conversations with people I have come to the conclusion that an awful lot of folks haven't the slightest idea of what living means. They seem to think that living and excitement are synonymous. They can't see anything interesting in everyday living. They are searching—and most of them searching in vain—for glamour and thrills.

"How I envy you newspapermen," they write to say. "Your life must be so exciting. You are right in the midst of everything. You travel; you meet interesting people; you have a front row seat in the spectacle of life."

It is that last statement, which came to me yesterday in a letter from Dayton, O., that got my goat.

The writer was a Dayton drug store employee. He didn't say just exactly what he is doing in that drug store, but I could tell by his letter that he was a well-educated man in his thirties.

He compared the monotony of his life with the color of mine. And he closed his letter with a paragraph in which he expressed his sympathy with my present condition.

"Now that you are more or less confined to your home," he wrote, "you will get an idea how most of us feel who have to spend the greater part of our lives in the confinement of our local surroundings."

Apparently this fellow is abie-bodied, of sound mind, well paid happily married—and extremely onced.

I wonder how much he has seen of Dayton. I wonder how much he has explored his own community—a darn good and interesting community. I wonder how much he has done and is doing to make Dayton a better city.

I even wonder whether he went out and voted on November 2. Looking at life, my dear readers, is not gallivanting all over the world looking for oddities. That is Bob Ripley's job, believe it or not, not yours or mine.

Looking at life means looking at the kind of life that most of us live and, by looking at it right, getting the most out of it that can be gotten.

That Dayton fellow works in a drug store. To me there aren't many more interesting places than drug stores and hardware stores, where all kinds of people go for all kinds of things.

I spend hours in our local establishments—Colgan's and Greenberg's—looking at new gadgets and things.

This morning Joe Colgan showed me a little blue bottle with 50 white pellets in it. The price was $24.95.

"Wow!" I exclaimed. "what's that for?"
 "For seasickness."

"Isn't that terribly high?" I inquired.

"Have you ever been seasick?" he asked.
 "Wouldn't you have gladly given $10.00 to get rid of that awful feeling? I think $24.95 is cheap."

If I had more space I'd tell you about that little gadget that lets you cut your own hair at home. Only 69 cents.

From Me To You

By MESEKALL

Here's a real idea . . . comes from the Y. W. C. A. . . On December 6th the Y. W. will start a Day Nursery . . . at first it will only be held on Monday afternoons with the sole purpose of the nursery to make it possible for mothers with small children to do their shopping in some sort of order . . . any mother who has a child between the ages of two and six is invited to use this Day Nursery . . . the hours of the nursery will be 1:30 to 4:30 . . . that gives mothers three hours to travel about from store to store and shop . . . Perhaps you are wondering what charge will be connected . . . there will be NO charge, it's another of the many services the Y. THANKSGIVING

All around us God's bounty is spread; His love can be seen in countless ways— His love that has suffered and bled On the cross of wars rash, thankless days; Love that built a land of clear beauty; A land where prayer is free to share And meet in songs of praise and duty, Under our flag of freedom anywhere.

Richly we are blessed; richly free To enjoy our own plans for living. Richly free from the hunger and plea That calls from across the sea—ringing Pleas that stem from human helplessness; Calls to share our gifts with thankfulness.

What Will It Boil Down To?

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Will Urge Postal Changes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—In the course of his high-level campaign Governor Dewey customarily got the loudest applause when he promised that Washington would get the "greatest housecleaning" in its history under his administration. The wave of applause would come as the Republican candidate called for the "unsparing, unraveling" of the bureaucratic jungle on the Potomac.

Now this response may have come merely because it was one of the few positive things that Dewey said. But it also may have reflected the sense that judicious pruning could not but improve the federal bureaucracy.

For many months the Hoover commission has been hard at work preparing a blueprint for this undertaking. The commission bristles with big names. Some of the nation's leading business management firms have been called in to chart the path to greater efficiency.

In a speech the other day Herbert Hoover gave us a peek at what soon will be forthcoming. This preliminary peek must have surprised old timers whose idea of efficiency is to liquidate every other bureau.

Plan Drafted Changes
 The commission, Hoover said, means to recommend drastic changes for the post office department. And what must have been even more startling to those who scream "bureaucracy" as though it were a naughty word written by schoolboys on the sidewalk is that the pattern of change recommended follows the present practice of the Tennessee Valley Authority. While Hoover did not say this, it was abundantly clear from his remarks.

The post office department often is touted as an example of business administration in government. Nothing could be further from the truth as the Hoover commission seems to have discovered.

Over the greater part of its operation, the department has no control at all. Post offices are built by the treasury, turned over intact to the department which charges off no depreciation for them.

Hidden Subsidies
 But the catch comes in the hidden subsidies that the post office must pay out under laws passed by congress. Payment to the airlines for carrying mail is fixed by the Civil Aeronautics Board. Tremendous pressures are exercised to get these payments up as high as possible and the public rarely has a chance to learn how much is actual cost and how much is subsidy.

Similarly, the rates paid to the railroads for carrying mail are fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Novel Provision
 The other contains a novel provision under which both bargaining elections and strike votes shall be conducted by a three-man board consisting of a representative of the employees, a representative of the employer and a third member chosen by the other two. Picketing is prohibited except on a vote of fifty-one per cent of the union involved. Boycotts and sympathetic strikes are outlawed, and provisions are made for unions to sue and be sued, and for enforcement of collective bargaining agreements in the State courts.

As will be noted, there is no recession from the Taft-Hartley Act, but an extension of its provisions. The idea of a three-man board to pass on bargaining agent elections and strike votes for the first time gives the employer a chance to check on these two matters, a right, in common fairness, to which he is entitled. If this provision, in conjunction with that limiting picketing to fifty-one per cent vote of union members, is properly applied, North Dakota in all probability will save a considerable amount of strike turmoil.

ness administration in government. Nothing could be further from the truth as the Hoover commission seems to have discovered. Over the greater part of its operation, the department has no control at all. Post offices are built by the treasury, turned over intact to the department which charges off no depreciation for them.

Hidden Subsidies
 But the catch comes in the hidden subsidies that the post office must pay out under laws passed by congress. Payment to the airlines for carrying mail is fixed by the Civil Aeronautics Board. Tremendous pressures are exercised to get these payments up as high as possible and the public rarely has a chance to learn how much is actual cost and how much is subsidy.

Similarly, the rates paid to the railroads for carrying mail are fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Novel Provision
 The other contains a novel provision under which both bargaining elections and strike votes shall be conducted by a three-man board consisting of a representative of the employees, a representative of the employer and a third member chosen by the other two. Picketing is prohibited except on a vote of fifty-one per cent of the union involved. Boycotts and sympathetic strikes are outlawed, and provisions are made for unions to sue and be sued, and for enforcement of collective bargaining agreements in the State courts.

The World and the Mud Puddles

NORTH DAKOTA LABOR LAWS

There has been a great hullabaloo by the C. I. O. and the A. F. L. regarding the Taft-Hartley Act and they have demanded its repeal by the Eighty-first Congress of the United States. The State of North Dakota has not joined in these demands. On the contrary, they have recently adopted by popular vote, State labor legislation which contains more rigid labor control provisions than the Federal Act. Two laws passed by the State Legislature were subjected to referendum, both winning by substantial majorities.

One law declares invalid contracts denying the right to work because of membership in a labor organization.

Must Reduce Government Expenses

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.

IF the public were less apathetic and more alert, there would be greater consistency and more good faith among those it elects to govern. It is the voters' own fault that acts do not accord with words and pledges can be broken with impunity. Lack of discernment operates not only against good faith but good sense.

FOR example, consider the present state of our national finances. The enormous cost of our foreign commitments is sure to increase in the coming year. New decisions running into additional billions already press upon the newly elected President. Of course, there should be no retreat from the foreign policy upon which we have started. On that road there is but one way to go and that is forward. Nevertheless, greatly increased expenditures in both foreign and domestic fields for 1949-1950 at once raise the question of how far we can go without wrecking our own internal economy already straining under an unprecedented budget and an undreamed-of debt.

IT is not too much to say that upon the solidity of that economy hinges the health of the world. If it totters or even partially collapses, general chaos will ensue. No one knows this better than our potential enemies, who for a decade have pushed us toward greater expenditures and extravagance. Clearly, these facts make it the first duty of the triumphant Mr. Truman to buttress our Federal fiscal structure with more revenue. Further deficit financing is too perilous calmly to contemplate. There are but two ways to raise revenue—one, by increasing taxes; the other by reducing expenses. Already, the Truman aides are forecasting stiffer taxes on corporations and high-bracket incomes. But, it is admitted that if this step is too drastic it will slow down business, and might bring on the dreaded depression. Under such conditions one would think administration eyes would turn to the other alternative—economy. But only a vague and feeble interest is exhibited in that subject, and concrete proposals for reduction are viewed with active disfavor. This, of course, is not only bad faith but stupidity.

FOR the way to save money without impairing efficiency has been clearly pointed out. A long time ago Senator Harry Byrd asserted that a reduction of 30 per cent in the job-holding army of more than 3,500,000 could be made without crippling a single vital Federal agency. Such a cut, he insisted—and without contradiction—would save $2,000,000,000 annually of the present $7,000,000,000 pay roll. It seems almost unbelievable that a President under such necessity for revenue as Mr. Truman could refrain from enthusiastic grasp of this chance—particularly as Senator Byrd's statement gets such overwhelming support from the report of the Hoover Commission on Reorganization of the Executive Department, to be submitted on January 10—and to which Mr. Truman is already committed.

THIS commission was created nearly two years ago by a joint resolution (unanimously passed), sponsored by Representative Clarence Brown, of Ohio, and Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. It is a completely bipartisan body and Mr. Herbert Hoover was drafted as its head. The commission enlisted as a "task force" more than a hundred outstanding men of ability and experience who, uncompensated and without stint, have given of their time and energy. The report, the most complete and comprehensive ever presented, will reveal many startling facts and propose a reduction of this vast, swollen, utterly absurd Federal bureaucracy to manageable proportions, to a side where it can function with a semblance of efficiency and a cost that will not break our backs. As recently explained by Mr. Hoover, the proposed reorganization of the Post Office Department will not only vastly facilitate deliveries and take the whole business out of politics but also save approximately $500,000,000 a year.

THE unanimity with which Congress asked the commission to do this job; the character and unselfishness of its members and of its "task force"; the acute need for retrenchment, plus the fact that if this, clearly the last chance, fails the bureaucratic growth will continue unchecked until the great monstrous machine bogs down under its own weight—all these things, ought to put behind the report the full weight of the White House and the leadership of both parties in Congress. That is what ought to happen; but, unless somehow the American people shake off their lethargy, it will not happen. Already—and before they know it—contents—the labor and left-wing allies of the Administration are putting out adverse propaganda.

THE silly cry is raised that any plan to abolish duplication, and eliminate waste is an attempt to "repeal the New Deal." The union bosses want the Labor Department expanded, not curtailed. "Liberal" spokesmen insist that the people "ordered otherwise," which is to say that they voted against any effort to lighten their burdens. Thus, they play into the hands of the powerful jobholders' lobby and its political sponsors, who will fight like tigers to keep their constituencies on the pay roll. It would be fine if an aroused public sentiment could convince roll. It would be fine if that kind of fight involved personal danger. It such sponsors that that kind of fight, regarding political counsel, would be fine, too, if Mr. Truman, disregarding political counsel, should give it wholehearted instead of merely perfunctory support. It also would be fine if Congress, which unanimously asked that the job be done, should accept the product of its request in the same spirit. That would be consistent; that would be good faith; that would be good. That would be a political miracle occurring in the recent election. Perhaps another may occur in the coming session. We must always hope.

Y.W.C.A. Plans Nursery For Small Children Of Christmas Shoppers

On Monday afternoon, December 6, the YWCA will open a nursery for small pre-school children. "This is a brand new idea," says Mrs. L. S. Webster, chairman of the project, "and we do not know whether the women of New Castle and Lawrence county will use it or not. But we rather think they will, judging from the looks the tired mothers have while Christmas shopping as they drag tired children around from store to store."

Mrs. Webster says the nursery will be free to any child who is clean, of walking age, and has no contagious disease. Even children with colds will not be taken. The nursery, will be on Monday afternoons, beginning December 6, from 1:30 o'clock to 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Webster, in choosing a day, consulted first with local merchants to see which day they would advise and they agreed that it should be either Saturday or Monday.

May Be Extended
Mrs. Webster says she is willing to have the nursery more than one day a week and also to have it longer than the month of December if mothers of small children wish it. Mrs. Webster has been planning and working on this project for the past month and during the course of this period she has consulted with women who have had successful experience in running church nurseries, including Mrs. Wyatt R. Campbell, Mrs. F. G. Simonton and Mrs. Roy A. Long. She received many valuable suggestions from them. Announcements have been made in a number of local clubs concerning the need for toys and children's furniture.

Mrs. Gladys McClurg, house director at the "Y" is planning to have the gymnasium all scrubbed and clean in preparation for the opening on the sixth.

Mrs. Webster will have as aides on the opening day Mrs. Heber C. Anderson, Mrs. Ivor Carlson and Mrs. John B. Waddington. Mrs. Carlson will greet children and their mothers at the front door and take them up in the elevator. Other women have also volunteered as aides and if the response to this fine community service warrants more help, she will call on them latter.

"COOKS AND CHEESE"

Protein is perhaps the most important part of our food. Cheese is a very good source of protein.

Many persons do not like cheese. They try limburger and cottage and a lot of other kinds but they do not like any of them.

Sometimes a skillful cook is able to combine cheese with other things so that it is disguised.

It works just as well that way. It does not make much difference whether it is tasted or not.

Protein is necessary for all ages but it is especially needed in children and old people.

Perhaps its main use is for building and repair but it has many other uses. Mother slips some yeast and some cheese into the pot and keeps quiet about them. Buster and Dad and Sally and Grandma get the benefit without asking any questions.

To demonstrate the principles of atomic energy for the laymen, scientists have built an "atomic motor". Seven copper spheres mounted on a plastic wheel are driven by the 200,000-volt charge of a model atom-smasher. Its wheel spins at speeds up to 100 revolutions a minute.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By Ernest G. Osborne

THE FAMILY WORKSHOP

Junior Book and Record Exchange
Do you know your neighbors—in the apartment house or in the neighborhood—well enough to work out a sharing plan that will bring a good deal of happiness to all the children?

The idea is simple enough. We all buy some books and some phonograph records for our children. After a while even the favorites may get to be "old stuff". Then with budgets straining to meet high food costs we hesitate to buy an interesting-looking book or record that is highly recommended. Yet in the neighborhood, there are many other parents in the same position. The books and records they have bought may not be the same as yours. So why not an exchange or a borrowing service?

One needs a few good organizers who can sell the idea to various families and work out an exchange system that isn't too complicated. One way is to get the school to cooperate by supplying space where books and records can be kept to be loaned to, or exchanged by, members of the group. This may be done, however, from one centrally located house or apartment. Mothers may take turns in being the exchange manager. And even the children can help!

Commission. Hidden subsidies in these payments go to several sources, including many publications which are carried at less than actual cost.

Actually the post office department runs up a huge deficit. Last year it was $300,000,000, with the prospect this year it will be $500,000,000.

Hoover indicated that his commission would recommend that all revenues of the post office department be retained by the department. If they were not sufficient to cover cost of operation, congress would have to make up the deficit. But at least it would be possible to determine how close income approaches outgo.

What TVA Does

This is precisely what TVA does. The TVA act requires that income earned by the farflung projects go back into TVA's treasury to cover costs of operation.

Hostile critics of TVA, such as Sen. Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, have consistently attacked this practice. They have demanded that TVA follow the "business-like" example of the post office department which turns over the money you pay for postage stamps to the U. S. treasury and then goes to congress for a blanket fund to operate. The Hoover commission appears to have shattered the myth.

Many of the lessons to be learned from TVA have been obscured by the constant barrage of hostile propaganda, much of it emanating from the utility lobby. TVA is the only large government agency that is not required to hire its employees through the Civil Service Commission. The Hoover commission will recommend that other agencies have the right to hire outside the narrow limitations of civil service which often make it difficult to obtain the proper kind of help.

What Hoover and his experts also should study is the fact of TVA's location in the region where the job is being done. The value of keeping clear of the Washington tangle has been proved in practice and other branches of government could profit from the lesson.

IN VIEW OF NEWS

old national differences remains completely unsolved.

A question repeatedly raised among supporters of the federation plan these days is whether it ever will be possible to bring the delegates of nations completely together by means of the highly complicated translation systems instituted at Nuernberg and used since the war crime trials by the United Nations.

It has been found that in the case of so many crucial issues that have ended in a Soviet veto, there have been prolonged arguments as to whether translations should be simultaneous or consecutive.

There has been a singular unwillingness on the part of many delegates—who ostensibly were dedicated by international cooperation and eventual prevention of war—to agree upon what at the moment might appear to be the simplest and speediest method of procedure.

All of which makes the United States of Europe seem far away indeed.

But the idea and the ideal both live on. They have at least the virtue of a persistence that has not been destroyed by countless reverses.

Hearings To Begin On Constitutionality Of Soft Drink Tax

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Dauphin County Court will begin hearing the long-pending suits attacking the constitutionality of Pennsylvania's soft drink tax December 14.

Seven of nine suits challenging the legality of the tax will be presented at the initial hearing.

The tax was adopted by the 1947 legislature and was challenged almost immediately by soft drink bottlers. Imposing levies of one-cent on a 12-ounce bottle and a half-cent an ounce on syrups used in fountain drinks, the tax was designed to yield $35,000,000 a biennium. But collections for the first year indicate a two-year return of only $27,000,000.

The levy automatically expires May 31, 1949, unless extended by the General Assembly.

Suits which will be heard December 14 are those filed by the Penn Syrup Corp., bottlers of Coca Cola, Seven-Up, Pepsi-Cola, True-Ade, and the Booth Bottling and the Kim Beverage companies.

Report U.S. Ready To Back Israel As U.N. Member

PARIS, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Reliable sources said today that the United States is ready to back Israel's desire to become a member of the United Nations.

It is thought that U. S. Delegate Philip C. Jessup may give voice to this policy when he speaks on the Palestine problem at this afternoon's session of the 58-nation political committee.

Israel has not formally applied for U. N. membership, but has repeatedly stated her desire to become the 59th state in the world organization.

The U. S. attitude is said to be that Israel's regular compliance with U. N. directives on the Palestine problem demonstrated the new-born state's fitness to join the comity of nations.

Jessup is expected to declare that if Israel continues her obedience to the resolutions of the security council, the U. S. will support her application for U. N. membership.

No full statement of American policy on the troublesome Holy Land issue is expected before Tuesday. But at today's session, convened in response to Britain's demand for quick action on the Bernadotte plan, the U. S. and other powers may outline their positions.

King Farouk May Take Second Wife

Much Speculation That Divorced King May Marry Beautiful Widow

CAIRO, Nov. 20.—(INS)—There is speculation in Cairo today that divorced and sonless King Farouk may wed the young and beautiful widow of a distant cousin in his determination to provide a male heir to the throne of Egypt.

The widow, wealthy Egyptian Princess Fatma Toussein, renowned for her beauty, her smart clothes, and her fabulous jewels, has been seen much in the king's company.

Divorces Announced

The 28-year-old monarch announced yesterday his own divorce from Queen Farida, and that of his sister, the Empress Fawzia, from the Shah of Iran.

Princess Fatma was engaged until recently to Prince Joao of Orleans and Braganza, member of the former imperial family of Brazil. But the engagement was cancelled, reportedly because the princess is a devout Mohammedan and the prince a Roman Catholic.

The black-haired, light-skinned princess was widowed two years ago when her husband, Prince Hassan, was killed in an automobile accident in France. She has fine, small features. She speaks French and English faultlessly.

Recently she had divided her time between Cairo and Paris.

GETS NOBEL PRIZE

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Count Richard N. Coudenhove-Kalergi, a leader for the past 25 years for a European federation, was nominated today for next year's Nobel prize.

The nomination was made by Dr. Arnold J. Zurcher, professor of Political Science at New York University. It followed an announcement from Oslo that the Nobel Committee would make no award in 1948.

Count Coudenhove-Kalergi has been a member of the N. Y. U. Graduate School faculty since 1941.

Forty Scottish kings are buried on the tiny Hebrides isle of Iona north of Ireland.

There are now 41,000,000 motor vehicles on the highways of the U. S., an all-time record.

Koreans Praise American Efforts Of Past Three Years

SEOUL, Nov. 20. — (INS) — An estimated 50,000 Koreans in Seoul stadium adopted a resolution today praising the accomplishments of American occupation forces in the past three years.

The anti-Communist rally—sponsored by the South Korean government and press—was held amid symptoms that the Korean man-in-the-street wants the Americans to leave his country.

According to government spokesman Kim Dong-Sung the rally adopted three resolutions including a message to President Truman praising the work of the occupation.

The gathering also approved a message of goodwill to United Nations General Assembly Chairman Herbert V. Evatt and General Secretary Trygve Lie.

Moose Auxiliary Members Admitted

Eight Initiated At Library Chapter Night; Miss Alice Sterling Speaker

Initiation of new candidates marked library chapter night of the Moose auxiliary in the Moose hall on a recent evening. Eight new members were taken in.

Ritualistic work was put on the drill team under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Grittle, drill captain.

Speaker of the evening was Miss Alice Sterling, librarian of New Castle Free Public library, who talked on the importance of getting children started to read early and well. She stressed how helpful it is to a child throughout his school years if he is a facile reader. At the close of her talk she answered questions from the group and discussion followed.

Purpose of library chapter night is to send books to Mooseheart for the children there. Mrs. Josephine Trumbull is chairman.

Explanations of the three graces of the organization, Faith, Hope, and Charity, were given respectively by Mrs. Orpha McConnell, Mrs. Ann Conti and Mrs. Rose Bishop.

In order to provide baskets at Christmas to about 20 families, the auxiliary will have an ingathering of canned goods on December 1 and again on December 15. It was voted that each member give one dollar to this project in lieu of a Christmas exchange among the members.

On Sunday, November 28, Mooseheart chapter night will be observed with husbands and friends as guests. Dinner at 6 o'clock will precede the meeting. Mrs. Pauline Springer is chairman.

On the lunch committee for library chapter night were Mrs. Ruth Seeger, Mrs. Margaret Grittle, Mrs. Agnes Vignovich, and Mrs. Mary McGahan.

Next regular meeting will be December 1 when members plan to take gifts for a box to be sent to a local boy at Mooseheart.

As the investigation of the November 9 assault-slating continued, it was discovered that Miss Foster had written an essay on crime apparently only a few hours before her death.

The essay, on the subject of comic books as "crime stimulants," was found on her desk at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Messenheimer, where she roomed while at college in Boulder.

The rough draft of the essay criticized comic books for stimulating violent crimes by the younger generation.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

Around Hollywood

By ROLAND HAYES

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 20.—Jayne Meadows always has been, self-admittedly, the wrongest guesser in the world with regard to her career.

Her latest faux-pas probably will land her an academy award nomination, which makes a guy wonder how wrong can you be.

Jayne is a beautiful recruit from Broadway, where she played nothing but comedy roles. When Sam Goldwyn offered her a chance to hit Hollywood just before the opening of her play, "Kiss Them for Me," she decided to gamble by waiting for the opening. If she were a hit, she figured, her services would be more valuable.

Didn't Click
So Goldwyn gandered her opening night and said: "Like actresses, and she can't act!" Jayne had made wrong guess No. 1.

Producer Pan Berman suggested she make a test for M-G-M. Jayne had never appeared professionally in a drama, but she selected the highly emotionally monologue from Sidney Howard's "Alien Corn."

Jayne saw herself in a projection room and was so hysterical with grief, she had to be ushered into another room where an Esther Williams picture was in progress.

"The only thing I remember about that picture," she recalled, "is that every time I blew my nose or wiped my eyes, either Esther was climbing out of a pool or Van Johnson was just diving in."

Offered Role

next day, certain she had failed miserably. Wrong again.

The test brought her to M-G-M and a part in a Katherine Hepburn flicker.

Many times on the stage, Jayne had elected to take roles that had been turned down by stars or veterans. Jayne had a philosophy, passed on from a character actor: "Good parts make stars, bad parts make actors."

She's wrong again. For in "Enchantment," she took a part that another star had declared "impossible" and instead of merely making a better actress of her. It is destined to make of her a star, according to movie moguls who have seen the picture.

Goldwyn Fraze
And her producer has called her the greatest young actress of this generation. His name? Sam Goldwyn!

In "Enchantment," Jayne—tall, titian, and terrific—plays a role which one reviewer describes as "The most frightfully vivid portrayal of a vixen in screen history is given by Jayne Meadows." The studio still department wanted Jayne to pose for pictures that might illustrate that witchery. So Miss Meadows prepared herself accordingly.

When the pictures were developed, Jayne was wrong again: In each photo she looked exactly like Shirley Temple!

Good Taste

ARE YOU NOISY?

Check up on yourself and see if you are a noisemaker.

Do you slam doors instead of taking time to pull them closed as quietly as possible?

Do you slam windows open and closed rather than gently slide them up and down?

Do you stomp up and down stairs disregarding the paint finish, as well as the nerves of the other occupants of the building?

Do you turn your radio on with a loud blast, especially in the very early or very late hours when others are sleeping?

Do you speak in a loud voice that hurts the ear drums of your listeners?

Do you read aloud, without invitation or encouragement, thereby spoiling the concentration of other readers nearby? This is especially annoying in family gatherings when it is necessary for several to congregate in the living room for the evening's quiet reading.

Do you allow your children to scream during their play period on the street, especially when their games carry them over to your neighbors' property?

Do you give loud parties lasting until the wee hours, shrieking your "goodnight" at your front door to your departing guests?

Are you a street car whistler who emits shrill sounds in the ears of a tired businessman coming home from a hard day's work?

Do you yawn and sigh audibly, thereby depressing those who overhear you?

If you are guilty of any or all of these annoying faults, you had better reform while you still have a few friends left.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Why it is necessary for us to increase telephone rates
...for the first time in 24 years

COSTS ARE UP!

There, in three words, is the basic reason why the telephone service we provide must be repriced.

The cost of practically everything that goes into operating the telephone business has gone up. Today, our total expenses are nearly two and a half times as much as they were in 1940. Payroll, which represents more than half of our operating expenses, is nearly three times what it was in 1940.

True, our revenues have gone up, too. But not enough to balance rising costs.

To illustrate:

While revenues per telephone have increased 17 per cent since 1940, expenses per telephone have gone up 35 per cent.

EARNINGS ARE DOWN!

As a result, our earnings have gone down at a sharp and continuing rate in the last two years . . . and are continuing to decline.

Earnings per telephone are now
43 per cent below 1940.

The return on our plant investment—land and buildings, wire and cable, central office equipment and telephones—today is at the lowest level since 1920 . . . lower even than during the depression years.

Since 1940, we have added
$183,000,000 to our plant investment. Yet our earnings in 1948 will be less than they were in 1940.

In face of these facts, we must make further additions to our plant, totaling more than $150,000,000 in the next few years alone. The Company's earnings cannot provide the funds for such expansion. The major portion of this vast amount must be financed by the investment of new money in this business, which can only be attracted if earnings are adequate.

EARNINGS MUST BE ADEQUATE!

The growth of a telephone system must keep pace with the requirements of the people it serves. Only a financially healthy telephone company can provide the quantity and the quality of telephone service that everyone has every right to expect.

But only with earnings that are adequate to assure safety and a fair return on the money invested in the business can new money be attracted to assure future growth.

It is clearly in the public interest that earnings be adequate to accomplish this.

NEW RATES TO BE EFFECTIVE JANUARY 21, 1949

We have mailed a notice to all customers on record as of November 19, 1948 advising of the change in rates. Each notice includes the changes affecting the majority of customers in their exchange area.

Complete schedules of the new rates are now on file in each of our Business Offices and our employees will be glad to answer any questions you may have.

Senior Class Play Presented Friday

Capacity Audience Thoroughly Enjoys Three-Act Comedy, "Suzie The Siren"

When a teen-age girl starts imitating the practices of present day movie stars, the result is usually humorous to all but the young lady. But when a lass of bobby sox age becomes a self-styled siren of the Greek mythology variety, the result may well be disaster. At least it approached that Friday evening in the annual play of the New Castle Senior High School graduating class.

Audience Kept Laughing
The class presented "Suzie the Siren", a three-act comedy by Ann Coulter, Martens, and kept a packed house on the verge of riotous laughter throughout the course of the evening.

Suzie, played by Nancy Hinsh, made almost impossible demands of her football playing boyfriend so that he could prove his love for her in the heroic manner of an ancient Greek tragedy. This resulted in the boyfriend, James Walker, almost being barred from the football team the day before the big game of the year, and it also endangered the chances of Suzie's school principal father, Myron Frank, to convince a wealthy alumna to donate the funds for a new school gymnasium.

Suzie's young brother, Pete, James Campbell, and his bubble-gum chewing friend, Adella Bigley, had no difficulty performing the heroic feats and thereby saved the day and the gym for Weston High.

Directed By Miss Hartsuff
The play was presented under the capable direction of Miss Clara Hartsuff, who was presented with an orchid and a lovely gift by Myron Frank and Barbara Marquis on behalf of the cast.

Each member of the cast performed his role well and are today receiving the plaudits of their friends for a fine production. No one who attended will soon be able to forget the antics of the younger brother and his friend, James Campbell and Adella Bigley had been assigned the show stealing roles and performed them very well.

Excellent Performance
James Welker as Jim, the football player, gave an excellent performance of an embarrassed youth when he finds it necessary to take off his trousers in the living room of his best girl to avoid being captured by the police.

The Senior High school orchestra made one of its first public performances of the year in a stirring overture by Offenbach. Under the direction of Joseph Replogle, the orchestra played a variety of selections between acts and at the conclusion of the play.

Dr. R. F. Galbreath Speaks At Dinner

One of the most outstanding affairs of the year took place in the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church on Friday evening when a "round up" dinner took place in the church dining room, with the various classes and organizations of the church joining in the successful event.

Rev. Howard Redmond, the pastor, served as toastmaster and also offered the invocation for the occasion. Members of the S. C. W. class served as a kitchen committee, while the K. J. U. class served in the dining room.

The program continued with two solo selections by James Duff, accompanied by Rev. Redmond on the guitar. E. C. Gatrall was introduced as a special guest of the evening.

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of First Presbyterian church, was introduced as the visiting speaker and in a very informal manner traced the various phases of the Christian walk, applying it to the various ages in the church, the child, the youth and the adult, showing how each could and do play a very vital part in the life of the church. The address was very well received by the fine audience.

The dinner event closed with the group singing "Onward Christian Soldiers".

Davis Bible Class With Mrs. Maurey

Mrs. Harry Maurey of the West Pittsburg road was a pleasing hostess to members of the Davis Bible class of the Mahoning Methodist church on Friday evening. Mrs. Lila Thayer served as co-hostess.

The meeting opened with devotions followed by the business period, in which plans were made for the annual Christmas party to take place the third week in December. The meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Freeman of Madison avenue and a gift exchange will take place. Plans for the meetings early in 1949 were made.

A lovely lunch was served to the large group in attendance with Mrs. Thayer aiding Mrs. Maurey.

Pastor And Wife Honored Friday

Congregation of the Madison Avenue Christian church joined Friday evening in the church to tender a welcome to the pastor, Robert L. Smelser, and his new bride, who have just returned from an extended wedding trip. S. J. Hunt, an elder in the church, was chairman of the event and offered the invocation. Group singing featured the opening minutes of the gathering. Special music was presented by Mrs. Robert and Joseph Seamons who were heard in two numbers.

Two readings were presented by Mrs. John Robinson with, other special music by Ann and Norma Robinson, Mrs. Robert Stevenson and sister-in-law also were heard in vocal selections. Mrs. J. E. Leasure and son Donald Leasure pleased with two readings.

The newlyweds were presented with a purse of money by Mr. Hunt. Appropriate remarks were made by the pastor and wife. Rev. Smelser closed the service with the benediction.

Brownies Meet At Home Of Leader

The Brownies Girl Scout troop No. 52 met on Friday evening at the home of the leader, Mrs. Thelma D'Amico on the Mt. Jackson road. The girls made miniature turkeys out of apples. Later the young ladies enjoyed a nosegay lunch.

Mrs. D'Amico and co-leader, Mary Louise Pitts, packed 13 kits of clothes to send overseas. The next meeting will be at the same place on December 3 when the scouts will take up embroidery.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representatives
Louis B. Roberts, Agriculture

FARM MARKET STRONG: COSTS UP, INCOME OFF

A strong demand for most farm products is expected in 1949, according to extension agricultural economists of the Pennsylvania State college. Farm production costs are expected to remain high and net incomes to farm operators are likely to be less than in 1948.

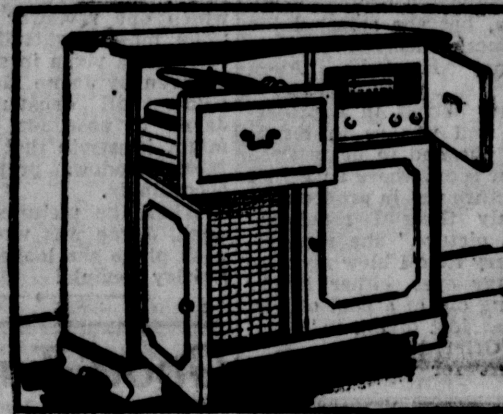

Present indications are that a fairly stable level of economic activity will be experienced in 1949. Substantial amounts of foreign aid and the growth rate of governmental expenditures for defense afford considerable assurance for a high level of demand, at least for the first half of the year. These expenditures may cause further price inflation, but any further price rise will be limited to non-agricultural commodities.

Demand prospects are less certain for the second half of 1949 when crop and livestock marketings will be heavy.

Feed costs are expected to be down in 1949 as a result of the record grain crop and the increased supplies of proteins. Other important farm expenses, such as labor costs, depreciation charges, interest and tax payments, and motor vehicle operating costs, are likely to increase.

Strong consumer demand is expected to maintain prices of meat animals for the first part of 1949 close to the 1948 levels. By fall, however, pork supplies are expected to be large and this should result in lower meat prices at that time. Demand for milk should continue at relatively high levels. Prospects for egg prices are good at least for the first part of the year. Substantial increases in hatchings next spring may result in an increase in laying flocks next fall and winter. Prices of chickens, broilers and turkeys probably will average lower in 1949 with most of the decrease during the latter months of the year.

DAUGHTER BORN TO GENE TIERNEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Glamorous Screen Actress Gene Tierney and her six-pound eight-ounce daughter, born yesterday, were reported getting along fine today in Le Roy hospital.

The baby was born on her mother's own birthday.

Miss Tierney and her dress designer husband, Olex Cassini, have another daughter, Daria, 4. They plan to name the newcomer either Alexandra or Christina.

It is claimed by some authority that women are inclined to talk more than men due to the fact that their vocal chords are lighter and move more easily.

TREASON CHARGE BUDAPEST, Nov. 20.—(INS)—

The personal secretary of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, outspoken anti-Communist Primate of Hungary, was arrested today on a charge of suspicion of high treason.

The secretary, Dr. Andras Zakar, was said by Hungarian police to have given information about alleged persecution of Catholics in Hungary to foreign correspondents and diplomats.

Cardinal Mindszenty has frequently charged that the Communist-dominated regime is not living up to its claim that it does not persecute religious groups.

Present Comedy At Union High On Friday Evening

'The Baby Sitter' Is Well Portrayed By Juniors-Seniors Of School

Union High school students have done it again! They have presented on of the most hilarious of junior-senior plays, Friday evening, and as before, the cast members gave excellent performances. It would be difficult to say which cast member gave the most convincing performance in "The Baby Sitter" by Perry Clark—they were all that good. Instead they provided several hours of fine entertainment with the laughter-evoking three act comedy. Of course the plot opens with Bob Ballard breaking a date with his one and only, Carrie, through the insistence of his parents. They want him to date Eunice, instead.

Fireworks Begin
 The fireworks start when Carrie is involved in baby sitting with a "holy terror", Junior Ballard. Junior does everything to make Carrie's life miserable that evening and upsets the entire house with his mischief. He even goes so far and eats what Carrie thinks are poisonous toadstools; which makes her frantic. She then tries to pour an antidote down Junior's throat.

Naturally here is where the Bob comes in, surprised to see Carrie. Eunice appears and is quite annoyed at seeing Carrie. The Ballards are summoned and when they learn that Carrie actually saved Junior's life—well everything is fine. Bob and Carrie are dating again and in fact everyone in the play is happy. This also includes the audience who surely enjoyed the entire performance.

Mrs. Helen King directed the play, and during intermission she was presented with a gift. Music for the entire production was by the Union High school band, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Gibson.

Cast of Play
 The cast who performed last night included:
 Bob, who breaks a date—Jack Peterson.
 Mother, who makes him break a date—Lois Straitwell.
 Father, who agrees with mother—Dan Leasure.
 Junior, a holy terror—Bob Martin.
 Jane, Bob's sister—Ray Anderson.
 Helen, Bob's sister—Rita Rogan.
 Carrie, Bob's one and only—Nadine Bartlett.
 Eunice, who tries to take Carrie's place—Joyce Henning.
 Carl, Helen's boyfriend—Bill Pearce.
 Lefty, another holy terror—Gene List.
 Midge, who raids the icebox—Ester May Cox.
 Dot, who helps her—Wilma Heckart.
 Mrs. Gordon, Junior's mother—Josephine Proudfoot.
 Mr. Gordon, Junior's father—Lewis Grell.
 The play is directed by Mrs. Helen King, who is in charge of dramatics at Union High school.

GIRL SCOUTS

Brownie Troop 54
 Members of Brownie Troop 54 held their regular meeting Wednesday at Glenmore school, with Mrs. Ralph McCormick as leader and Mrs. Edmund Shaw as assistant. Following the regular business, the troop received their Brownie pins. As they formed a circle, each girl stepped forward, gave her promise, turned and saluted, and in return was saluted by the troop. Games and songs were then enjoyed by the girls. Scrap books got under way with the girls cutting out the letters for the covers.

Church Basketball League At "Y" Will Start Monday

Total Of 472 Sign For Various Leagues Playing At YMCA

Another church league basketball season gets underway Monday night at the YMCA floor.

After more than twenty years of continuous playing, this league has continued to grow in importance and numbers so that it is necessary this year to split the league into two sections of six teams each.

The "A" division will be composed of First Baptist, First U.P., Epworth, First Congregational, Third U.P. and St. George. The "B" section will have Croton, First Methodist, Wampum Presbyterian, Wesley Methodist, Moravia Presbyterian and First Presbyterian.

A total of 472 men and boys will have the opportunity to play league basketball at the "Y" this winter. In addition to the Senior church league there will also be a Junior church league. Six teams will enter the C-I league which promises to be one of the fastest in the city this year. In its first year of operation, many of the county's best basketball players performed in the league. American League, United Engineering, Shenando Pottery, Eccles Club, S. and O. Railroad, and Southside Lions have entered strong clubs this year and the prospects of a hot pennant chase are very good.

Many local cage artists have played in the house league at one time or another. The names of that loop have been changed to the Senior "Y" league but some of the old teams and players will be back this season trying as hard as ever to outscore their opponents, no matter what they call the league. Six teams, the Rebels, Wings, Shamrocks, Chiefs, Clives and G.I. Shine are planning to field fast teams in the Senior "Y" League.

For the younger fellows, Saturday afternoon basketball games in the Junior Church league has long been the high point of the week during the long winter season. There has been so much interest created in this league during the past few years that it will be necessary to have two sections in it this season. The first eight teams from last year's standings will form the National division. New teams and lower place finishers from last year will make up the American division. Play in this loop got underway this afternoon.

Championship Tourney
A champion in each league will be determined by a play-off between the first and second half winners. This will be followed by a tournament of champions, the winners of each league, to decide who is supreme in "Y" basketball circles.

All teams in the same league will play on the same night of the week. This will eliminate confusion about the schedule and permit players to reserve in advance one night of the week for basketball. Junior church league games will be played on Saturday afternoons and evenings beginning at 3:00. Senior church class "B" games start at 7 o'clock on Mondays and three games will be played each week. Class "A" in the same league will have three games on Wednesdays. The senior "Y" league is scheduled to play on Tuesday nights and teams in the C-I league play on Thursdays.

High class officiating has been secured for the games this year and a large group will no doubt pick out a favorite team to follow throughout the season. A nominal admission free will be charged for all games except the junior church league.

Monday's schedule is as follows: 7:00, Wampum vs. First Presbyterian; 8:00 First Methodist vs. Croton; 9:00, Wesley Methodist vs. Moravia Presbyterian.

Horace Stoneham Backs Durocher

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Manager Leo Durocher, who hasn't had much to be thankful for these last few years, got an unforeseen pre-Thanksgiving greeting today from a source that really mattered—his boss.

Said President Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants in denying that the recent hiring of Frank Frisch as coach had created a "situation" between the old Gas House team mates:

"Leo's my man. I picked him personally for the job last summer and he came through handsomely. Another thing: I didn't pick Frisch as coach. Leo did."

"That's how much confidence Leo has in our association. And why not? I'm pretty high on him, and he knows it."

When St. Louis' famed Gas House Gang was at its best in the mid 30's, the current status of the pair was reversed, with Frisch being player-manager and Durocher a fancy but light-hitting shortstop.

Records Smashed At New York Track

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—All mutual and attendance trotting records were smashed at Roosevelt Raceway this year.

The Long Island track, where night harness racing is featured, drew 1,983,764 fans in 145 nights of racing.

These fans wagered $68,491,600 on the trotters and pacers, according to the New York State Harness Racing Commission figures released today.

This is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that both attendance and wagering show decreases at all of the running tracks.

The harness races showed a gross gain of $6,551,531 over the last year and attendance figures were up 502,658.

AT NEW YORK (St. Nicholas Arena)—Melo Bettina, 192½, Beacon, N. Y., defeated Enrique Felpi, 209½, Argentina.

Dewitt Dean, 185½, Detroit, kayeed Leroy Coleman, 190, Lodi, N. Y., in 2:01 of 3rd.

AT DETROIT—Leroy Willis, 136, Detroit, defeated Joey Angelo, 140½, Providence, R. I. (10).

Berry Gordy, 126½, Detroit, defeated Ciro Montalvo, 124, Mexico City (4).

Louis Winner Of Exhibition

DETROIT, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Joe Louis was still the champion with the home town folks today after his first Detroit ring appearance in two years.

Although sluggish and punchy, the heavyweight champion had no trouble polishing off Verne Mitchell, his 196-pound opponent in a six-round exhibition last night.

The Brown Bomber dropped Mitchell twice for a two-count in the second round and a nine-count in the third.

The champion evidently decided at that point that Mitchell had earned his fee, and made no further effort to rough him up.

Louis weighed in officially at 230 pounds, but appeared much heavier.

Franklin Gridders Eligible For Crown

Ben Franklin Junior High school football team is one of three junior highs still in the running for the Junior W.P.I.A.L. championship.

The Patriots are unbeaten and tied as are Charlevoix and Duquesne. The winner will be decided from among these three when the league holds its annual banquet at the Roosevelt Hotel in Pittsburgh Monday night.

There is no playoff game in this league and the winner is determined on the basis of merit points gained under the Gardner system.

Franklin has played only four games this year. Although that is sufficient for title consideration, it is doubtful if they will have enough points as the other two contenders have each played more games.

Michigan Best, Indiana Says

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Michigan is the best college football team in the nation!

That is the opinion, by a slim margin, of 25 Indiana university gridgers who played the Notre Dame and Michigan gridgers on successive week ends.

The boys who played against the two undefeated squads give Michigan a 12 to 11 vote with two ballots rating the teams even.

Putting the N.C.A.A. "sanitary code" into effect in the college athletic world is similar to putting a new law into effect throughout the nation.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

JOHNNY RIBAR, sports editor of the Daily Citizen, Ambridge, has taken issue with a statement published in Here & There, November 9. The story resulted from a fan's letter to the writer, in which he asked: "Why doesn't New Castle play Ambridge in football? They play basketball." Here & There checked and was informed by a person close to the powers-that-be in New Castle football matters that Ambridge maintains No-Ca-High is "too tough." Apparently the statement acted like liniment poured into a raw cut. Ribar wrote in his column that he checked and found the statement was never uttered by Ambridge grid authorities. Further, Ribar wrote that "many years ago New Castle and Ambridge tried to arrange a set of games but failed. Things got so uneven that matters were just dropped—and for good. In fact, 'so good' that they just never contacted each other in any more attempts." Here & There had The News football writer, Charles Walther, contact Coach Phil Bridenbaugh yesterday and "Bridle" said: "Years ago we were willing to play Ambridge but they always said their schedule was filled. We do not care now whether or not they play us." Ambridge played nine games during the current season, losing twice, once to Rochester, and also to New Kensington. However, Ribar points out Ambridge used 38 players to beat Vandergrift which humbled New Kensington, and employed 48 players to beat Moon township, a class B school, who was defeated by Bessemer. Ribar says, and correctly so, that Ambridge did not play and lose to Farrell, as Here & There published, a statement for which Here & There apologizes. In reading the statistics, Here & There got hold of the wrong line of statistics. Johnny further writes that: "We heard the New Castle Cross Country coach remark that the two schools should meet on the gridiron. Several other New Castle school authorities have said the same thing. But still nothing is being done. Athletic Director Moe Rubenstein of Ambridge said upon being told of New Castle's attempt to schedule the Bridgers: 'We have a 'phone at the school. Why don't they give us a ring.'"

Bear killed by Bill Bealick, Plank road, or R. D. 5, was larger than first reported. It hog-dressed 421 pounds. . . . That Joe Louis-Jimmy Bivins decision (given by newspapers to Bivins) is akin to the "Not guilty but pay the costs" verdicts. The writers claim Louis could have "taken" Bivins at his pleasure. Of a gate of $47,351, Joe received 35 per cent or approximately $16,000. . . . Slippery Rock Teachers have received a "fee" for the annual New Year's Day game in the Tangerine bowl at Orlando, Fla. . . . Judges called off the sixth annual grand national grouse championship at a refuge near Marienville because they couldn't find a dog worthy of bearing the title, according to a report. Of 35 dogs entered, only three ran in second series work. They were Burton's Fleetfoot Giner, owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Burton, Pittsburgh; Chief General, owned by W. Lee White, Norwalk, Conn., and Flora Sky, owned by Sam R. Light, Punxsutawney. Once before, in 1946, the judges failed to declare a winner in the national championship. . . . Pitt opens their floor season December 4, against Penn State at home, and closes against West Virginia, March 25, at Morgantown, which will be their twenty-fourth game. They play Westminster at Pittsburgh, February 12.

Bobby Neal of Beaver Falls defeated Irish Jimmy Sanders of Warren, Pa. at Pittsburgh. Neal had Sanders on the floor twice. Neal wants to box Frankie Moran of this city here. . . . Sheriff Frank Coen saw a 14 point buck in the Plain Grove refuge, No. 151 yesterday. The buck is said to have made the Plain Grove, Harlansburg, Jacksville district his "home" for years. . . . There will be turkey shoots this evening and Sunday afternoon at the farm of the LCCA at the Harbor, and at Enon Valley's club grounds, Sunday afternoon. The shoot will be two miles south of Enon Valley on Route 551.

Co-Captains Of Ellwood City Bolt Busters

New Castle Hi Band Returning Courtesy

When you see the New Castle senior high school band out on Taggart Stadium Thanksgiving Day, it will be a return of courtesy to the Wabash Bears.

On Thanksgiving Day, 1947, the band went to Bethlehem, Pa., where New Castle played Bethlehem. Not only that, but the band stopped off at Washington, D. C., toured the city, saw the president and had a bang up time.

One of the big reasons why the fund raising for the trip was a success was the Wabash Bears.

When the campaign started for funds, Willie Domenick, manager, and Blackie Adamo, coach, came to a committee meeting and said "We want to help this fund. We'll put on a ball game and we're not interested in getting any money out of it. We want the kids to get that trip."

The game was staged between the Bears and the Ellwood Trojans, now known as the Bolt Busters, and when all expenses and taxes had been paid, the band fund was $2,300 richer.

The game was the idea of the Bears manager and coach, and this year when the band was asked if it would play for the game on Thanksgiving, the answer was an enthusiastic yes.

Wisconsin Is Not Dropping Big Nine

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—It was all a horrible mistake.

The Big Nine, which may soon become once again the Big Ten by admitting Michigan State to membership, was the Big Eight for a few wonderfully confused moments recently.

The editors of the Chicago Maroon, student newspaper at the University of Chicago, a school whose exit from the Western Conference over two years ago turned the Big Ten into the Big Nine, started it.

They read the University of Wisconsin out of the league. The headline in the paper said: "Rumor Big Nine football may lose Wisconsin."

And, said the story: "Chicago's desertion of Big Ten football . . . may have set a precedent after all."

Considering Dropping
"According to reports reaching the Daily Maroon office, the University of Wisconsin is already considering dropping the sport, at least as it is played in the Western Conference today."

Source for this intelligence, according to the story, was a reporter for a Madison, Wis., newspaper who had come "Down here to find out how a school gets along without football."

The Madison newspaper admitted readily enough that it's been running a series of stories on what's going on at Chicago, where they don't play intercollegiate football, as a matter of general feature interest to its readers.

Plot Thickens
After that, the plot thickened, and jelled, into nothing at all. The University of Chicago student editors didn't mention that:

1. Football pays for other athletics at Wisconsin.
2. Private funds pay for athletics at Chicago.

So it would be pretty hard for Wisconsin to give up football, even if they wanted to, and Good Eye Harry Stuhldreher, the Badger athletic director, who isn't leaving for anywhere at the moment, doesn't particularly want to.

Bettina Wins Over Argentine Heavy

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Boxing fans agreed today that Enrique Felpi, Argentina white hope, needs more experience to become a leading heavyweight threat.

Felpi lost a unanimous decision to Mello Bettina, of Beacon, N. Y., former light-heavyweight champion, in a 10-round bout at St. Nicholas arena last night. Felpi was wild and telegraphed his punches.

Golfers Seek $155,000 Nest

17-Tournament Winter Tour Worth Bundle To Met Golfer, PGA Announces

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Professional golfers will be in there swinging for at least $155,000 in prize money during the 17-tournament winter tour whose schedule was announced by P. G. A. Headquarters in Chicago today. Only two of the events, the one-day La Gorce Pro-Amateur meeting at Miami's La Gorce Country Club March 14 and the P. G. A. Seniors' Championship at Dunedin, Fla., January 10-15, have not yet had prize purses assigned. All other tournaments will carry a minimum prize purse of $10,000 each, with the exception of the big Los Angeles Open January 7-10 at Riviera Country Club, an affair already boasting a $15,000 prize purse.

Two New Tournaments
Two events, the Long Beach, Calif., Open Invitational and the La Gorce Tournament, are newcomers to the winter twing. Two others that were on the 1947 schedule, the Charlotte, N. C., and Richmond, Calif., Opens, have been dropped.

The winter tour begins with the Miami Open three weeks hence and winds up, traditionally, with the classic Masters' Tournament at Augusta, Ga., April 7-10.

Arrangements have been completed for all tournaments except the Jacksonville, Fla., Open Invitational, which has been scheduled to run March 18 through 21 but is still classed in the tentative stage.

Turkey Shoot Tonight, Sunday

There will be a turkey shoot at the Sportsman range at the Harbor tonight from 7 to 11 o'clock and Sunday from 8 to 11. It will be a lucky target shoot. The range is located at the Lawrence County Sportsman association at the Harbor. All shooters are welcome.

HORNETS TO PLAY ST. LOUIS FLYERS

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A victory at the Gardens tonight will up the Hornets to first place in the western division of the American Hockey League. A re-camped Hornet lineup will try for victory No. 10 against the League-leading St. Louis Flyers.

Lou Boudreau, who won the world championship for Cleveland, is secure but Bill Veeck has no choice in the matter. He tried to fire Boudreau before the start of the season and can't get rid of him now. The Cleveland fans would burn down the ball park and most of the Cleveland ball players would help pour fuel on the flames.

DONORA, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—The exciting WPIAL Class AA football title race definitely will end at Donora today where Duquesne High School plays the Dragons of Donora.

If the "Little Dukes" can win their seventh WPIAL contest from Donora they will meet Monongahela for the championship next Saturday.

And Duquesne is favored heavily to do just that. Unde-feated this year the Steel City boys have rolled over ten straight opponents and are the only unbeaten eleven among the Double A contenders.

Soviet Plan To Cut Armaments Loses In UN Vote

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Nov. 20.—The U. N. General Assembly rejected on Friday a Soviet resolution proposing a one-third cut in armaments by the "big five" and the outlawing of the atomic bomb.

The action followed adoption of a Belgian resolution recommending continued Security Council study of disarmament through the Commission on Conventional Armaments.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky sat glumly as the assembly, in a roll call vote, turned down the Soviet resolution paragraph by paragraph and then rejected the resolution as a whole.

The vote was 39 against, six in favor and six abstentions.

On the Belgian resolution, which set off bitter charges and counter-charges by Vishinsky and U. S. Delegate John Foster Dulles, the vote was 49 to 6.

The Kingdom of Yemen was the only country to abstain.

The assembly also turned down a so-called Polish compromise resolution which closely paralleled the Soviet draft.

The vote on the Polish resolution was 33 against, six in favor and five abstentions.

Heart Balm Suit Reported Settled

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 20. (INS)—Courtroom rumors had the settlement at between $10,000 and $15,000 today in the "heart balm" suit of Mrs. Sara H. Schnitzler, 41-year-old school teacher.

Mrs. Schnitzler had sued the wife of a Wheeling industrialist, Mrs. June Carroll Krause, for $250,000 for allegedly luring her husband, Edwin, away from her.

The judge dismissed the jury yesterday when attorneys reached an agreement.

Mother And Three Sons Die In Fire

DIXON, Ill., Nov. 20.—(INS)—A 31-year-old housewife and her three sons, ranging in age from seven years to 18 months, were found burned to death Friday in a closet of their home.

The victims were Mrs. Margaret Warfel, 31, and her sons, Richard, 7, Charles, 6, and Robert, 18 months.

Police Chief Harry Fischer of Dixon said Mrs. Warfel's husband, Randall, told police that he was awakened by smoke and heat.

He was quoted as saying he found the clothing in the bedroom closet aflame and the four bodies on the floor.

He told police he put out the fire and summoned aid.

NEW YORK TRUCK DRIVERS THREATEN STRIKE ON MONDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Four thousand New York AFL truck drivers prepared today to call a strike Monday unless wage increases are granted by 400 motor carrier firms.

John J. O'Rourke, president of Local 282, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, said the trucking companies have until tonight to sign new agreements for a 2 1/2 cent hourly wage boost.

He said: "Some of the companies already have signed contracts. Just how many I do not know, but I do know it's not enough."

"If they're not all signed up by Saturday night, it's no contract, no work."

Uncertain Future For Some Producers Of Coal Is Forecast

Secretary Of Open Pit Mining Association Says Coal Demand Declines

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—A spokesman for the strip mining industry in Pennsylvania today pictured a gloomy, uncertain future for coal producers in the state.

C. Albert Stewart, executive secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Open Pit Mining Association, said a recent survey showed a declining demand for coal.

Demand in September, the last month for which statistics are available, caused a drop in Pennsylvania production (deep mines included) of 838,000 tons compared with August, Stewart declared.

He said there is a "noticeable decline" in retail sales in both the central and western areas depending on coal payrolls.

Professional men in the areas report money is tighter, Stewart asserted. He added:

"Local school districts looking forward to huge windfalls of revenue from taxes imposed on coal under the 1947 Tax Act are revising estimates and wondering what to do if the state does not resume its obligation to support the public school system."

Factor in Shutdowns Stewart charged that coal taxes imposed in some townships and not in others, is a factor in many pit shutdowns. He continued:

"The fallacy and dependence on coal for school district revenue will be proven by the fact that a great deal of the lower grade coals not now in demand are in the so-called distressed school districts."

"Thus the levies under the act will become a tax on a distressed local industry."

Stewart said a heavier demand this winter could affect the industry. He warned, however, that if this failed to occur, there would be no expansion of open pit mining of lower grade veins.

Emphasis, he said, would be on the mining of better coals by open pit miners.

Declares Machines Should Be Suited To Plant Workers

Many Machines Overtax Energies Of Workers, It Is Claimed

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Industry was warned that it should strive to suit the machine to the worker.

Dr. Lillian M. Galbreath, of Montclair, N. J., told the 13th annual meeting of the Industrial Hygiene Foundation in Pittsburgh that many machines were poorly designed and taxed the energies of the worker. She said:

"But if they come to look on the machine as something that extends their personality, eliminates drudgery and gives them extra time and energy, they may come to like the machine."

Management and labor were warned to close the gap between "what we know and what we do in public health" by Dr. Thomas Parman, dean of the new School of Public Health of the University of Pittsburgh.
